

Home / Course / Hugh Dunford Wood – print your own wallpaper | 3 day course | March

Hugh Dunford Wood – print your own wallpaper | 3 day course | March

Wallpaper Weekend Workshop

Print your own wallpaper with Hugh Dunford Wood at The School of Art & Wellbeing

20th, 21st & 22nd March 2020

7-8.30pm Friday, 10-4pm Saturday & Sunday

One of UK's only handmade wallpaper practitioners will share the secrets of creating a repeat-pattern and the principles of transforming a plant study into a design. Learn the theory by cutting your lino-block then hand print your own paper. No prior experience or equipment needed.

Limited places, so book early by contacting Hugh on his website here

Categories: Course, Printmaking Tag: Wallpaper

About

Discover the elements of simple pattern and principles of turning a plant study into a design. Learn the theory of repeat patterns by cutting a block and printing a length by hand. No experience or equipment needed.

£350 includes all materials, worksheets, and you take away your block and print.

Limited places, so book early by contacting Hugh on his website here

This article will give you an idea of what the course is like. Read Article and if you would like to try printing your own wallpaper at home then read this article from Coast Magazine: Print Your Own Wallpaper with Hugh Dunford Wood

£350.00

About the tutor

Hugh Dunford Wood

Hugh Dunford Wood has worked as an independent artist designer since student days at Oxford's Ruskin School of Art in the 1970s. He made a good living painting landscapes and portraits; he ran a fashion business for 15 years handpainting mens' ties with a team of 24 artists under his direction. He designs crockery, jewelry, furnishing fabrics and wallpapers.

He is a member of The Devon Guild of Craftsmen, Artist Member of the Royal Western Academy, Visiting Tutor at West Dean College, and was guest lecturer at Open University of the Arts.

W: dunfordwood.com

More courses

Vouchers - give a gift of art

Lizzie Mee - Introduction to Linocut | 1 day course |
March

Mary Ann Mackenzie - Colour | 2 Day course | April